1. A newly established troop camp was observed near the railroad station of METLIKA (Y 2/K 07), Slovenia.
2. The camp consisted of about 20 wooden cantonment buildings and five one-story buildings; a fence around the camp was under construction. Two gates were located on the western side of the camp.
3. Infantry and artillery troops speaking various dialects were observed. Most of the cantonment buildings were used as quarters, some of them were horse stables.

☐ Comment: The units in the METLIKA troop camp cannot be identified from available information.
